

MARTIN

Equipment

| Material Handlers | Power(Net HP) | Reach(at ground level) | Operating(lbs) | Clamshell(Size-yds) |
|--------------------------|---------------------------|------------------------------------|----------------------------|---------------------------------|
| 470G                     | 367 hp                    | 55'                                | 129,000                    | 2.0-3.5                         |
| 670G                     | 463 hp                    | 55'-60'                            | 187,350                    | 3.0-5.0                         |
| 870G                     | 532 hp                    | 60'-70'                            | 223,300                    | 3.0-7.0                         |

John Deere Material Handlers offer superior working range and lift characteristics with optimum strength-to-weight distribution and cylinder size.

Select from our standard specs or let us meet your specific needs for special applications and length requirements. Our material handling booms are ideal for close-in and long reach loading and unloading, as well as reaching tall hoppers in extreme above-grade environments. Solid design and construction ensures long lasting productivity.

Material handlers for machines not listed are available by request.